RENDER OF ACCUSED/APPELLANT BY SURETIES

A surety for a person who is bound by recognizance to appear may bring that person into the court at which he is required to appear at any time during the sittings thereof and before his trial and the surety may discharge his obligation under the recognizance by giving that person into the custody of the court, and the court shall thereupon commit that person to prison until he is discharged according to law.

- (1) Where, in proceedings to which this act applies, a person who is bound by recognizance does not comply with a condition of the recognizance, a court, justice or magistrate having knowledge of the facts shall endorse or cause to be endorsed on the back of the recognizance the appropriate certificate setting out:
 - (a) the nature of the default,
 - (b) the reason for the default, if it is known,
 - (c) whether the ends of justice have been defeated or delayed by reason of the default, and
 - (d) the names and addresses of the principal and sureties.
- (2) A recognizance that has been endorsed pursuant to subsection (1) shall be sent to the clerk of the court and shall be kept by him with the records of the court.
- (3) A certificate that has been endorsed on a recognizance pursuant to subsection (1) is evidence of the default to which it relates.
- (4) Where, in proceedings to which this section applies the principal or surety has deposited money as security for the performance of a condition of a recognizance, that money shall be sent to the clerk of the court with the defaulted recognizance, to be dealt with in accordance with this Part.
