Dear Hans Schreiber,

Thank you for your time yesterday. I very much hope that we shall be able to meet more than once on my trip over to Canada next week. I feel that two or three meetings over the period may well be the best way forward from introduction to consultation.

Most of my time will be spent in Toronto but it is probable that I will have to visit Ottawa in the latter part of my trip for a brief meeting, I understand that you might also have some commitments there.

I have deliberately kept my evening plans flexible in order to take advantage of any time you have for both social and consultation opportunities, in any event I would like to host yourself and, should you feel it appropriate, Frau Schreiber one evening.

These are my available times for the first part of my visit:

Wednesday	May 9	lunch 1200-2pm	730pm onwards
Thursday	May 10	1000 - 1pm	all evening
Friday	May 11	2pm - 6pm	all evening

This is suggested (can be flexible to fit in with you)

Please let me know that you have received this fax and the times you can make so I can arrange the rest of my week.

I am most easily contacted on my mobile phone or through the email address at the top of the page, it is unlikely that I shall be near the office at all this week.

I look forward to hearing from you and our meeting in Canada,

*Yours
Sam (Vaha)*

Dear Mr. Schreiber,

I have to go back to Europe to attend to some other business - as I mentioned to you - but I shall return shortly and we will then be able to meet as you indicated in our last call. My apologies but I know you understand. In any event it appears from your last two calls that there are ways forward on this project, and that my decision to seek your advice is correct.

I very much enjoyed our meeting, it is not often that I have had the opportunity for such a wide ranging discussion, I value the business points and the Bavarian sayings and I look forward to more!
My very best regards to both yourself and your wife.

I hope all is well with yourself and Frau Schreiber. My apologies for not writing sooner but I have found myself considerably busier than I expected in Eastern Europe, to where I return after this brief visit to the UK.

The previously discussed business venture continues although not without certain concerns. I look forward to consulting with you further on this.

It is my intention to return to Canada in July and will do my best to give you some advanced notice so that we may schedule some time together, remember I still owe you both dinner at least! In passing, this visit has thrown up other additional opportunities that you may find of interest. Should you require any assistance in this part of the world please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely

Vabe Sam
