RM: But CSIS gave up this case to you. So why do they still have a man involved?

DA: They gave up this case after many years, Daman. After many years, after they had done everything they could to keep it from coming to, to trial, so..

RM: Yeah, but they (CROSS TALK)(INDECIPHERABLE) destroyed lots of..

DA: And why would they do that? And you know, if you were a policeman, why would a government agency destroy the, the very tapes that would, you know, of Mr. PARMAR's? Why would...can you think of why? Perhaps if your agent was right in the middle of it, and then it happened and now you were all going to look horrible, you might, you might have a reason to cover that up, wouldn't you? I don't know, I mean, I'm just, I don't know, but all I'm saying is, is that, discuss it with your lawyer, but tonight just reassure you wife...

RM: Yeah, yeah that's why, going to make phone call. When can I see my son?

DA: I don't know what the situation is there, he's an articling student. I don't know. How about, let me think about that.

RM: Because, if I could see my son tomorrow, and you could pretend that... you could pretend anything. You could pretend that he's bringing my food or you could pretend that he's a lawyer, he's my lawyer, I mean he is assistant to Terry
