

SECRET

Cheerleaders Collective kept the mood light with a series of provocative cheers. "Left-right, left-right, get out of our town, get out of our sight," the cheerleaders yelled. "The cheers are about peace and how to oppose war in a creative way," said cheerleader Shelagh Pizey-Allen. The protest dispersed at about 2:30 p.m. without incident.

WINNIPEG FREE PRESS

Flu strategy cash marked for Winnipeg Canada prepares for pandemic

Mia Rabson Mia Rabson The Winnipeg-based Public Health Agency of Canada will get the biggest chunk of a $1-billion pandemic preparedness strategy announced in yesterday's federal budget. The plan is to spend $600 million over the next five years to improve Canada's readiness for a major public health crisis, including the feared global outbreak of avian flu.

D PK Pol Notes:

Afghanistan

Detainees. Over the weekend 13 detainees were apprehended and subsequently turned over to the Info on the detainees expected in NDCC by evening of 1 May 2006. ICRC will be notified on 2 May 2006.

s.15(1)

s.21(1)(b)

Sudan.

There was a Take Note debate in the House of Commons on the Sudan on the evening of 1 May. No new promises were made and it appears the government will maintain the present level of support to AMIS and Darfur generally.

s.15(1)

SECRET

5/17