Gentlemen,

I have a luncheon today at 2pm at La Castile on Dundas that will go till approximately 4:30pm. Rahim Jaffer who is the Canadian government money access point for us will be in attendance along with my cousin Aleem Lakhani who is with the Garfunkel Group (Am trust, North American Stock Transfer, various others). Aleem will be in overnight so I am proposing a dinner meeting tonight with you guys if you like. Let me know if 7pm works for you guys.
