Pursuant to Section 38 of the Coroner's Act, the following recommendations are forwarded to the Chief Coroner of the Province of British Columbia for distribution to the appropriate agency:

JURY RECOMMENDATIONS:

To: Solicitor General for British Columbia

1. Continue unification efforts of the various police departments.
2. Before release of high risk accused on bail, properly screened and appropriate sureties must be provided.
3. All police departments work across jurisdictional boundaries as one unit.

To: Attorney General for British Columbia

4. All victims and abusers should be provided with universally available advocacy services. Such services to be initiated upon first contact.
5. Risk assessment be made at the front end of process before bail conditions set.

To: Solicitor General and Attorney General for British Columbia

6. Special domestic violence units be set up regionally and coordinated with all stakeholders.
7. "no fixed address" designation not be allowed on bail orders unless accused agrees to GPS monitoring on high risk cases.
8. All updated "K" file information be shared across all jurisdictional lines immediately and with all agencies.
9. Bail release conditions be developed in conjunction with bail supervisors to ensure they are enforceable.

To: Government of British Columbia

10. Ongoing multimedia community based educational advertising program surrounding domestic violence be expanded and enhanced.
11. The government provides global funding to accommodate associate costs of these recommendations.
